St. James's, March 21.

HIS Majesty came this Day to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Charles Dalton, Gentleman-Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from his Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers; the Commons being come thither accordingly, his Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to,

An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters.

An Act to indemnify Persons, who have omitted to qualify themselves for Employments or Offices, by taking the Oaths and making and subscribing the Declaration against Transubstantiation, and receiving the Sacrament; and allowing them further Time for that Purpose.

An Act for allowing further Time for the Inrollment of Deeds and Wills made by Papists; and for Relief of Protestant Purchasers and Lessees.

An Act for obviating a Doubt which may arise upon an Act made in the fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, Intituled, An Act that all Proceedings in the Courts of Justice, within that Part of Great Britain called England, and in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, shall be in the English Language; so far as the same doth or may relate to the Court of the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, or to any Members or Branches thereof.

An Act for the free Importation and Exportation of Diamonds, Pearls, Rubies, Emeralds, and all other Jewels and precious Stones.

An Act to explain and amend two Acts of Parliament, one made in the Twelfth, and the other in the thirteenth Year of his late Majesty's Reign, for making navigable the River Dun, in the County of York; and for the better perfecting and maintaining the said Navigation, and for uniting the several Proprietors thereof into one Company.

An Act for rebuilding the Parish Church of St. George the Martyr, in the Borough of Southwark, in the County of Surry, as one of the Fifty new Churches, directed to be built by two Acts of Parliament, one made in the Ninth, the other in the Tenth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne.

And to four private Bills.

By the Lords Justices General and General Governors of Ireland,

A PROCLAMATION.

Hu. Armach. Wyndham C.

WHEREAS His Majesty has signified to us His Royal Pleasure, That the Parliament of this Kingdom, which now stands prorogued to Tuesday the Third Day of April next, be further prorogued to Tuesday the Seventh Day of August next; We do therefore publish and declare, That the said Parliament be, and accordingly the said Parliament is hereby further prorogued to Tuesday the Seventh Day of August next: Whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this present Parliament are to take Notice accordingly.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 16th Day of March, 1732-3.

By their Excellencies Command,

Tho. Tickell.

GOD Save the King.

Hague, March 31, N. S. The King of Prussia having accepted the Emperour's Mediation for composing the Differences between his Prussian Majesty and the States, it was notified to them Yesterday by the Prussian Minister, and by Count Sinzendorf, who had at the same Time a long Conference with the States Deputies on that Subject. To-morrow the States are to meet early, to consider upon what Conditions they shall consent to their Mediation. The States of Overysse, who met lately, have sent their Resolution to the States General, consenting to the Delivery of the Effects demanded by the Prince of Orange. The Deputies of Zealand have had already two or three Conferences with the States of Holland upon the Affair of Ter Veer and Flushing.

Mint Office in the Tower of London, March 24, 1732-3.

The Principal Officers of His Majesty's Mint give Notice, that any Persons who are willing to supply the said Mint with Copper upon the Terms hereunder described, may send their Proposals, with the lowest Price per Pound Weights Averdupois, sealed up, to the said Officers, on or before Thursday the 3th of April next, viz. In Fillets sealed, and of such a Fineness as to spread thin under the Hammer without cracking when heated red hot, and of such a Weight and Thickness, that Forty six Halfpence, or Ninety two Farthings may make a Pound Weight Averdupois, without erring in Excess or Defect above the Fortieth Part of a Pound Weight; in case the said Fillets do not answer the above Affairs in Fineness, and the Blanks cut thereon are too heavy or too light above
